DESCRIPTION

The RAMPANT U-Power multi-risk polo shirt is an essential and functional version designed for those working in high-risk environments without the need for additional visibility. Made of modacrylic fabric with inherent and permanent protection, it offers certified resistance against heat, flame and electric arc while maintaining a clean, professional look.

The garment features FR rib collar and cuffs, double-layered button placket with covered buttons and embroidered flame-retardant pictograms, elements that ensure safety, comfort and durability. RAMPANT is ideal for those looking for a minimalist, reliable FR polo shirt suitable for everyday use in industrial settings.
