DESCRIPTION

The U-Power Solaris cargo bermuda combines functionality, comfort and durability in a practical , modern design . Made of polyester/cotton stretch ripstop fabric , it offers outstanding freedom of movement , wear resistance and breathability , making it perfect for summer work . Elasticized inserts at the waist and a zipper and scratch-resistant button closure ensure a secure and comfortable fit, while the accentuated back yoke provides extra protection to the lumbar area. Designed for maximum practicality, the solaris bermuda shorts feature a multi-pocket design: two spacious front pockets , two zippered back pockets and two multifunctional side pockets. One side pocket includes a concealed badge holder, while the other features a colorful vertical zippered pocket that adds a touch of style. Details such as hammer webbing and reflex tape on the back loop enhance functionality and visibility in low-light conditions. Completing the modern design are reflective "lion's head" and "U-Power" logos, combining style and safety. solaris is a versatile garment designed to offer everything you need on busy work days.
